TO BE USED

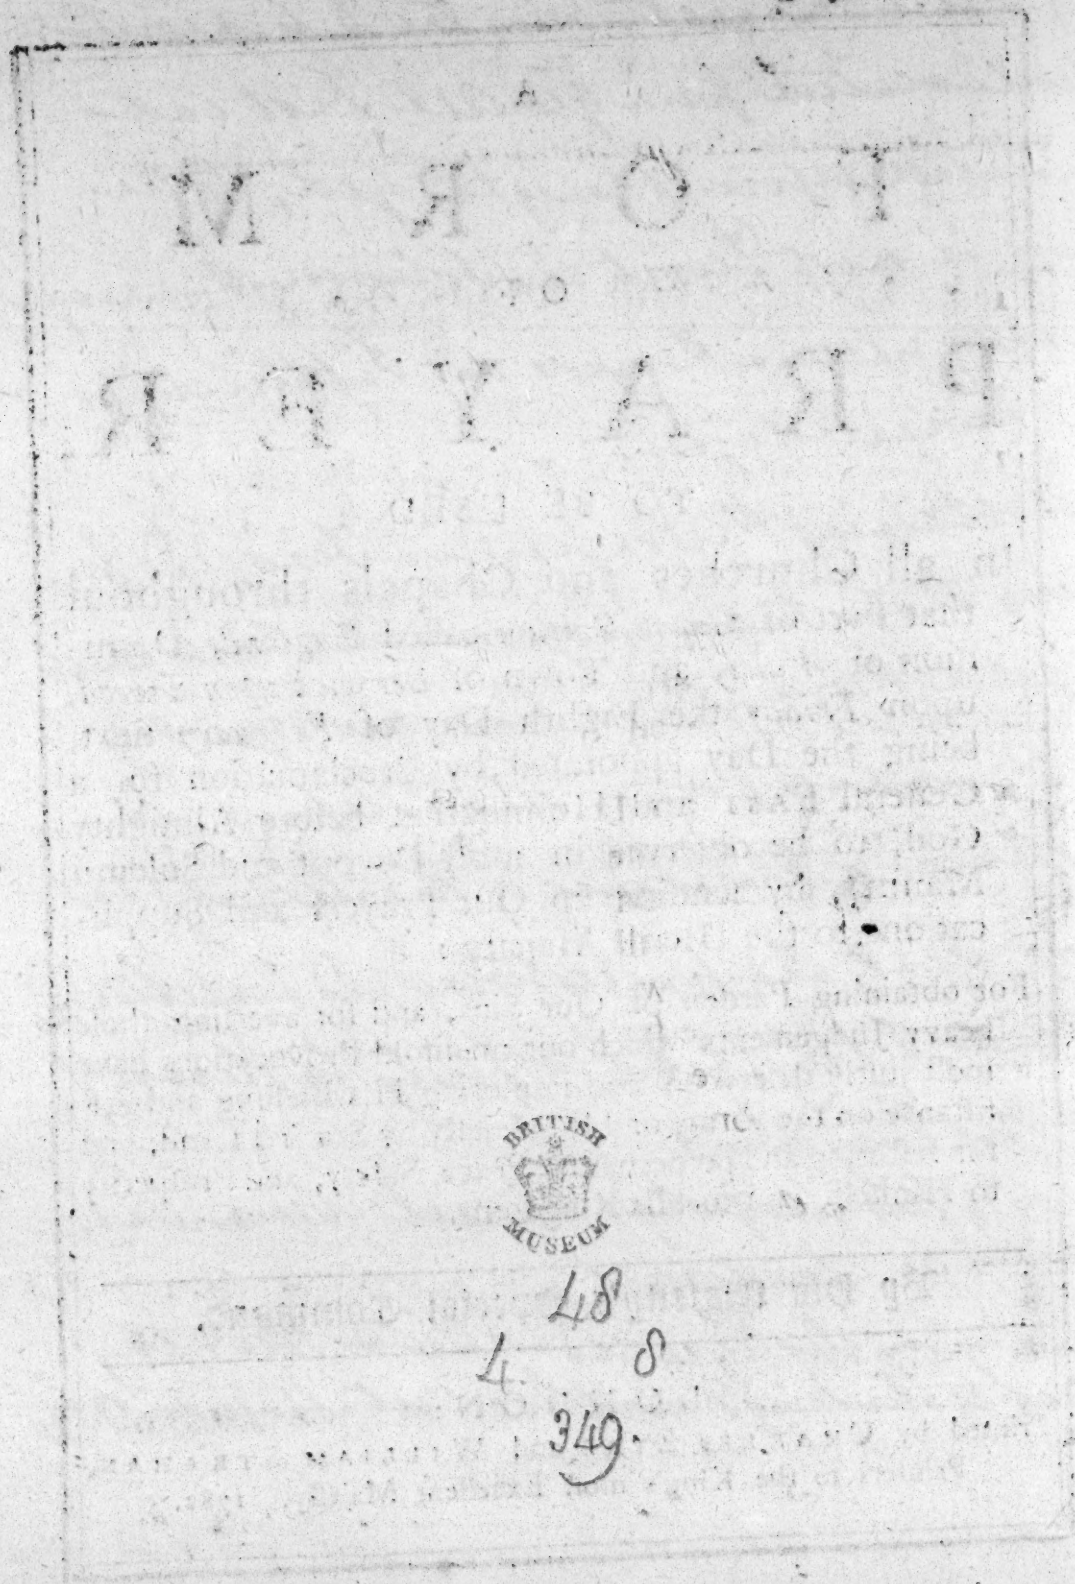

In all Churches and Chapels throughout that Part of Great Britain called England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon Friday the Eighth Day of February next, being the Day appointed by Proclamation for a General FAST and Humiliation before Almighty God, to be observed in most Devout and Solemn Manner, by sending up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty :

For obtaining Pardon of Our Sins, and for averting those heavy Judgements which our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved ; and imploring His Blessing and Assistance on the Arms of His Majesty by Sea and Land, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety, and Prosperity to Himself, and to His Kingdoms.

By His Majesty's Special Command.

The Order for Morning Prayer.

¶ The Service shall be the same with the usual Office for Holy-days, except where it is in this Office otherwise appointed.

¶ Let him that ministereth read with a loud Voice these Sentences of Scripture; and after them the Exhortation, Dearly beloved Brethren, &c.

L O R D, correct me, but with Jer. x. 24. judgement; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

I will arise, and go to my father, s Luke xv. 18, 19. and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

¶ Instead of the Venite, this Hymn shall be used.

THE sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: Psalms li. a broken and contrite heart, O God, thou ^{17.} wilt not despise.

I said, I will confess my sins unto the Lord: and so Psalms xxxii. 6. thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin.

Morning Prayer.

Pſalm
xviii. 1.

I will love thee, O Lord, my strength; the Lord is my stony rock and my defence: my Saviour, my God, the horn also of my salvation, and my refuge.

Pſalm
xviii. 2.

I will call upon the Lord, which is worthy to be praised: so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

Pſalm
xxxii. 7.

For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee, in a time when thou mayest be found.

Pſalm xliv.

Thou art my King, O God: send help unto Jacob.

Ver. 7.

For I will not trust in my bow: it is not my sword that shall help me.

Ver. 8.

But it is thou that savest us from our Enemies: and puttest them to confusion that hate us.

Pſalm xxxiii. 15.

There is no king that can be saved by the multitude of an host: neither is any mighty man delivered by much strength.

Pſalm
xci. 2.

I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my strong hold: my God, in him will I trust.

Ver. 1.

Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

Ver. 4.

He shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Pſalm
xxxii. 8.

Thou art a place to hide me in; thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

Pſalm xxxi. 17.

My time is in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine Enemies.

Pſalm
xxviii. 10.

O save thy people, and give thy blessing to thine inheritance: feed them, and set them up for ever.

Pſalm
xxix. 10.

The Lord shall give strength unto his people: the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace.

Morning Prayer.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

¶ Proper Psalms, XXVII, XLVI, LXIV.

First Lesson, Isaiah LVIII.

¶ After the first Lesson, shall follow Te Deum laudamus, in English.

Second Lesson, Galatians v. ver. 13.

¶ Then Benedictus, The Creed, etc. to the End of the Lord's Prayer.

¶ Then the Priest standing up, shall say,

Priest. O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us!

Answ. And grant us thy salvation.

Priest. O Lord, save the King !

Answ. And mercifully hear us, when we call upon thee.

Priest. Endue thy ministers with righteousness.

Answ. And make thy chosen people joyful.

Priest. Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Answ. Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

Priest. O Lord, save thy servants !

Answ. Who put their trust in thee.

Priest. Send us help from thy holy place.

Answ. And evermore mightily defend us.

Priest. Let the Enemy have no advantage against us ;

Answ. Nor the wicked approach to hurt us.

Morning Prayer.

Priest. Lord, hear our prayer!

Answ. And let our cry come unto thee.

¶ This Collect to be used instead of the First Collect for Morning Prayer.

O Lord God of our salvation, in whose hands are the issues of life and death, of good and evil, and without whose aid the wisest counsels of frail men, and the multitude of an host, and all the instruments of war, are but weak and vain; incline thine ear, we pray thee, to the earnest and devout supplications of thy servants, who, not confiding in the splendour of any thing that is great, or the stability of any thing that is strong here below, do most humbly flee, O Lord, unto thee for succour, and put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. Be thou to us a tower of defence against the assaults of our enemies, our shield and buckler in the day of battle, and so bless the arms of our gracious Sovereign, in the maintenance of His just and lawful rights, and prosper His endeavours to restore tranquillity among His unhappy deluded subjects in America, now in open rebellion against His Crown, in defiance of all subordination and legal government, that we being preserved by thy help and goodness from all perils and disasters, and made happily triumphant over all the disturbers of our peace, may joyfully laud and magnify thy glorious Name; and serve thee from generation to generation in all godliness and quietness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the second and third Collects at Morning Prayer: And the Litany.

¶ After the Prayer in the End of the Litany [We humbly beseech thee, &c.] shall these following be added:

O LORD, we beseech thee, mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee: that they whose consciences by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the People shall say this that followeth, after the Minister.

TURN thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, Be favourable to thy people, Who turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying. For thou art a merciful God, Full of compassion, Long-suffering, and of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, And in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, And let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, And after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord most good and powerful, we thy sinful people, here assembled before thee, do acknowledge it thine unspeakable mercy, that for our manifold manifold and heinous provocations we are not utterly consumed, and given over for a prey to the Enemy and Avenger. We confess, with sorrow and confusion, our long unfruitfulness under the means of grace, the light of thy gospel, and the many wonderful deliverances of this Church and State, which thou in thy great goodness hast vouchsafed unto us. O Lord, shouldest thou enter into judgement with us for the crying sins of this nation, for our profaneness and infidelity, our heresies and schisms, our inordinate love of worldly pleasures, and for our other manifold offences, thou mightest justly inflict upon us the severity of thy wrath, and deliver us up to the reproaches and insults of our Enemies: but there is mercy with thee, therefore shalt thou be feared: thou art the Lord God, tender and full of compassion, not willing that any should perish, but that all should repent and live. Look down therefore, we beseech thee, with an eye of pity and loving-kindness upon thy servants, who, with broken and contrite hearts, do here bewail our transgressions and wretchedness. Let our land in this time of trouble still enjoy the light of thy countenance, and the blessings of thy bountiful hand; and so work upon our hearts and minds by the gracious influences of thy Holy Spirit, that being turned from the error of our ways, and created to newness of life, we may walk before thee in all righteousness and holiness in this world, and inherit thine everlasting kingdom in that which is to come, through the merits of Jesus Christ our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

Morning Prayer.

O Almighty God, King of all kings, and Governor of all things, whose Power no creature is able to resist, to whom it belongeth justly to punish Sinners, and to be merciful to them that truly repent; Save and deliver us, we humbly beseech thee, from the hands of our Enemies; abate their Pride, assuage their Malice, and confound their Devices; that we, being armed with thy Defence, may be preserved evermore from all Perils, to glorify thee, who art the only Giver of all Victory, through the Merits of thy only Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Most merciful God, the supreme Disposer of all Events, and the Refuge of all those who trust in Thee, we thy unworthy Servants do most humbly implore thy gracious Aid and Protection. Be Thou to us, O Lord, a sure Guardian and Rock of Defence in this Time of our Necessity, when we are exposed to the Dangers and Calamities of War, from the united Attempts of many and powerful Enemies. Go forth, we beseech Thee, with our Fleets and Armies: Let thy Almighty Hand ever be over them, and the Light of thy Countenance shine upon them. Vouchsafe also thy especial Blessing to our most gracious Sovereign, King George: Defend him from all secret Conspiracies and open Violence; direct his Counsels, and prosper all his Endeavours for the Welfare of these Nations. Turn, O Lord, the Hearts of his rebellious Subjects in America, and let neither our unhappy Divisions, nor our other manifold Sins and Provocations, obstruct his Designs for the publick Good, nor bring down thy Judgements upon us; but spare thy People, O Lord, spare us; and by the Grace of thy Holy Spirit so unite us in a firm and uniform Course of Obedience to thy Will, and an hearty Zeal for thy Honour and Service, that we may evermore rejoice in thy Salvation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then read to the End of Morning Prayer as usual.

The Communion Service.

¶ After the Prayer for the King [Almighty God, whose Kingdom is everlasting] shall be read the Collect of the Day, as in the Morning Prayer [O Lord God, &c.] and then shall follow

The Epistle. 1 Peter Chap. II. Ver. 11, to Ver. 18.

DEARLY beloved, I beseech you, as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the King as supreme; or unto Governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the King.

The Gospel. St. Luke XIII. Ver. 1, to 6.

TH E R E were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering, said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered these things? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

¶ Then shall follow the Nicene Creed: and after that the Sermon.

After the Prayer [for the whole state of Christ's Church] the following shall be used.

¶ A Prayer for this Church and Kingdom.

O Blessed Lord, who hast manifested thine abundant favour to these realms, in thy marvellous protection of our religion, laws, and liberties, from the secret conspiracies, and open attempts of all who oppose us, and who hast lately given us fresh instances stances of thy goodness in dispersing the fleet and counteracting the designs of our enemies by sea and land; We beseech thee to preserve evermore in our minds, such a grateful sense of these thine invaluable mercies, that by our exemplary and religious use of them, and happy improvements under them, to thy honour and service, we may be accounted worthy of the continuance of thy blessings to us and our posterity. Take away from us, O Lord, all hardness of heart, all neglect of thine ordinances, and contempt of thy word; and endue us with a spirit of piety and devotion, a spirit of justice and temperance, of humility and charity, and of all other graces which adorn the Christian profession; that so thy dreadful displeasure and judgements may be ever averted from us, and iniquity not become our ruin. Be thou pleased also with thine especial favour to guard and prosper our gracious Sovereign King GEORGE, with all the Royal Family. Be thou to Him, O Lord, an helmet of Salvation against His enemies that delight in war. Do thou, we pray thee, defeat their stratagems, and put them to flight and confusion before His face: And grant that the success of His arms, by Thy blessing, may establish His lawful authority over His disobedient subjects, and bring safety, joy, and happiness to Himself and His kingdoms. Grant this, O merciful Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

The Communion Service.

¶ A Prayer for Unity.

O GOD, who hast taught us in thy holy Word, to increase and abound in love one towards another, put away from us, we beseech thee, all bitterness and wrath, and evil-speaking and envy, that our hearts may be firmly knit together in mutual affection, in zeal for our religion and laws, in dutiful obedience to the King, and all who are in authority under him; that as there is but one body and one Spirit, and one hope of our calling, one faith, one God and Father of us all, so we may henceforth be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee, O God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for our Enemies.

BLESSED Lord, who hast given us Grace to approach thee this Day with penitent Hearts, imploring thy merciful Aid and Protection in our national Distress, we further beseech thee most humbly to accept our Prayers and Supplications in Behalf of our Enemies; that it may please thee to turn their Hearts to a due Sense of the Sinfulness of their ambitious Designs, which have overspread a great Part of the Christian World with Violence and Slaughter. Incline them, O Lord, to follow after the Things that make for Peace; and grant us Grace, in the Spirit of our holy Religion, to forgive them, and be reunited with them in Christian Love. Dispose, we humbly beseech thee, the Minds of our Fellow-subjects in America, who have been unhappily misled into Rebellion, to recollect the Blessings they enjoyed in Times of Peace, and to return to the Duty and Allegiance they owe to our gracious Sovereign; that so they may recover the Security of their Rights, and their Relation to us, as Brethren united with us in one common Interest, and concurring with us in the Defence of our Liberties, and the Protestant Religion. Lord, hear our Prayer, for the Sake of thy blessed Son Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

A Almighty God, who hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in thy Son's Name; We beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ears to us that have made now our prayers and supplications unto thee; and grant, that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest (or Bishop, if he be present) shall let them depart with this Blessing:

THE peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.
